

Agenda Item: 4

One Nottingham Board

Title of Paper: The Young Creative Award and Creative of the Year Award, Nottingham Award and Black Achievers Awards

Date: 10 March 2017

1. Purpose

1.1 This report updates the Board on the awards One Nottingham (ON) is involved in during 2017.

2. Recommendations

2.1 The Board is asked to note:

- i. Progress on the Young Creative Awards (YCA) 2017 and members are invited to attend.
- ii. To agree the continued One Nottingham support for the Nottingham Awards 2017.
- iii. To appoint panel members to support the organisation and decision making in the award.
- iv. To agree to support the Black Achievers Awards 2017 and to appoint judges for the Lifetime Community Achievers Award.

3. Background

The Young Creative Awards 2017

3.1 The 9th Young Creatives Awards will take place on the 10th May at Nottingham Playhouse, from 5.30pm (exhibition and entertainment) and the awards 'show' itself from 6.15pm.

3.2 Distribution of tickets to the event will be managed by the One Nottingham team. You can confirm your attendance by informing a team member or emailing yca@onenottingham.org.uk Invitations have been circulated and Board members are encouraged to attend.

3.3 On the same day, Rebecca Constable, (Young Creative of the Year 2016) will have her first book published by Dayglo Books. This will be dyslexia friendly and in a radical new format which is believed to be a world first.

3.4 The event will be televised by Notts TV for the third year, with preview programming and advertising in the run up to the 10th May.

3.5 The Young Creatives Awards is always an exciting, entertaining and inspirational event, which has become a regular feature of the Nottingham creative and partnership year. Its strength lies in it is open for young people to enter, its genuine partnership approach and its network linking to opportunities in the creative business (for example Rebecca Constable, Philip George and Rob Green).

The Nottingham Awards

The Nottingham Award is now in its sixth year. Each year the three funders, (Geldards, One Nottingham and Nottingham City Council) and principle partners of the awards appoint a panel to source the awards and to agree the recipients of the awards. Last year's members of the Nottingham Awards panel were Councillor David Mellen, Councillor Dave Trimble, David Tilly, Jane Todd, Mike Khouri-Bent and Nigel Cooke.

The Board are asked to nominate members for the panel to meet to agree this year's criteria, process and timeline and recipients.

The awards this year will take place on the 5th October 2017 at the Council House.

Previous winners of the Nottingham Award are:

2012

- Derek Brewer, The former Chief Executive of Nottinghamshire County Cricket Club for his work at Trent Bridge and in Nottingham transport
- Helen Voce, for her work in the community and voluntary sector
- Peter Plummer for his achievement in education and leading the transformation of Elliott Durham School.

2013

- Glenn Crocker, Chief Executive of Biocity, for growing Biocity to be the largest bioscience incubator in the UK
- Dr Gillian Burton, (Consultant Nottingham University Hospitals NHS Trust) nominated for her work around Community Paediatrics in inner city Nottingham.
- Courtney and Trevor Rose, for providing innovative opportunities for studio time, musician and diversionary activities with some of Nottingham's most challenging young people.
- Jim Taylor, Ex Director of Development, Nottingham City Council. His work included the NET tram project; the renaissance of the historic Lace Market area; and the redevelopment of Nottingham's central Old Market Square
- Special Award, Jane Todd for lifetime achievement in the public sector

2014

- Jane Geraghty for her leadership in the Public and Voluntary sector, particularly for transforming the Nottinghamshire Probation Service.

- Craig Chettle – the founder and Managing Director of Confetti for his ground breaking work in Confetti and in the Nottingham Creative business sector and Further Education.
- Tom Huggan for a lifetime contribution to the City of Nottingham. He served the city in many guises including through the Nottingham Civic Society, Green's Windmill, the Nottingham Playhouse and the Castle amongst others. He practiced law in Nottingham and he is also the serving Town Crier.

2015

- Ann Priest – who has made a major impact in Nottingham in Higher Education and in community arts. And had significant influence across the UK and internationally.
- Ian Smith – the former Director of the Television Workshop who directed over 200 shows with the Workshop and discovered a wealth of acting talent from Nottingham.
- Inder Lal Batra, - was a leading member of the Indian Community over the past 50 years in Nottingham. He sought to promote understanding and co-operation between different communities and to help inform people of the different cultures in Nottingham.
- Betty Higgins for lifelong service to the public sector and transformation of the City's transport and public sector housing.

Geldards Award Winner -

Richard Tressider – The former Business Editor of the Nottingham Post. He received the award for his long service in the City, his commitment to Nottingham and for his insightful and informed journalism in the Nottingham Post.

2016

Daniel Hanson – Established Designer with a worldwide reputation for manufacturing and design, all from his Nottingham base.

Rose Thompson – For her lifelong contribution to fighting cancer in BME communities from her Nottingham based organisation.

Ruth Shelton – Received the Award primarily for her work with homeless people in Nottingham.

Geldards Award Winner -

Sat Baines – a world class chef, who has continuously operated from his Nottingham restaurant promoting his home city on the international stage.

The Black Achievers Awards (BAA)

This year, the Black Achievers Awards will take place on 21st October 2017, East Midlands Conference Centre

One Nottingham has been invited to sponsor the BAA for the third year and to award a winner from the people nominated through a public advertising campaign. ON supported the Lifetime Community Contributor Award, the recipient was Dolores Barnes.

Should the Board agree to take part in BAA 2107, the Board is again invited to nominate two people. The panel members were Mike Khouri-Bent, Sue Fish, Sajid Mohammed and Cecile Wright. The cost of sponsorship in 2017 is £500, which will enable ON to send two judges to the event to present the award.

6. Contact Details

Name: Nigel Cooke, Director of One Nottingham

☎ 0115 876 4997

✉ nigel.cooke@onenottingham.org.uk