

Agenda item: 8.
One Nottingham Board

Title of Paper: Nottingham Awards Update –

1. Purpose

1.1 This paper introduces the Nottingham Awards 2018

2. Recommendations

2.1 The Board members are asked to agree a panel to oversee the 2108 awards.

3. Background

3.1 The Nottingham Awards are now in the seventh year. Each year the funders and principle partners of the awards appoint a panel to oversee the awards and to agree the recipients.

The Board are asked to nominate members for the panel to meet to agree this year's criteria, process and timeline and recipients. the panel who made the decisions in 2017 were Cllr David Trimble, David Tilly, Jane Todd, Mike Khouri- Bent and Nigel Cooke.

The awards this year will take place on the 4th October 2018 at the Council House, as in previous years, at the annual Goose Fair Dinner.

The awards in 2017 were sponsored by the Mellors Group with
The 2017 recipients were:

Voluntary Sector:

Louise Cooke - The founder and organiser of Shareware, supporting homeless people, refugees and asylum seekers in Nottingham.

Leo Keeley - The Chair of the Refugee Forum for his work with refugees and lifelong contribution to Nottingham communities.

Public Sector:

Glen O'Connell - for his long service at the City Council and his lasting contribution to a number of iconic developments in Nottingham.

Private Sector:

Alan Parkinson - for his creative talent and promotion of Nottingham through the Architects of Air, which started as a voluntary organisation in St Anns going on to be an international phenomenon, from its factory in St Anns.

7. Contact Details

Nigel Cooke –One Nottingham ☎ 0115 876 4997

✉ nigel.cooke@onenottingham.org.uk

Nottingham Awards Recipients

2017

Louise Thompson
Leo Keeley,
Glenn O'Connell
Alan Parkinson

2016

Rose Thompson
Daniel Hanson
Ruth Shelton
Sat Bains

2015

Ann Priest
Inder Lal Batra
Richard Tresidder
Ian Smith

2014

Craig Chettle
Jane Geraghty
Tom Huggon, DL
Betty Higgins

2013

Dr Gillian Burton
Dr Glenn Crocker,
Courtney & Trevor Rose
Jim Taylor

2012

Derek Brewer
Peter Plummer
Jane Todd,
Helen Voce